

“These past three years have been the most rewarding and challenging of our professional lives. We couldn't be more grateful for the unwavering support of our amazing friends and family, who have been there for us in countless ways, from little acts of kindness like dropping by with snacks or a quick hello, to the immense hours spent coaching, advising, listening, and even providing financial support 🙏

To our customers - You are the heartbeat of our experience. It blows our minds that some of you visit our store every single week! Your loyalty and trust are not lost on us. You have entrusted us to share in some of the most intimate moments of your lives. From helping set up proposals with bubbly (and mezcal!) to sharing in the joy of pregnancies and sobriety journeys with non-alcs, and offering solace with spirits and hugs during times of loss, we have been privileged to be a part of your lives.

A special shoutout goes to our incredible manager, Ro Lopez. Your palate, honest feedback, and perfectionist approach have been invaluable to us. We're so grateful that you chose to join us on this journey, bringing your positivity every single day. We can't wait to keep pushing forward together into the next phase ✨

To our producers - Thank you for gracing the world with your delicious libations and entrusting us to be the storytellers of your craft. It's an honor we don't take lightly. More than ever we are excited and committed to our mission of highlighting under-represented makers of the world, until we are in a world where they are no longer under-represented 🙌

In gratitude,

Jessica and Kori
